

News:

Constructor Russia appoints Alexey Borzenko as Managing Director

Logistics expert, Alexey Borzenko, has joined Constructor Russia, part of the Pan-European Constructor Group, as local MD.

The 40-year-old native born Russian brings extensive experience in international logistics and operations having previously worked for Robert Bosch GmbH, Toyota and URSA.

Married with one son and living in St Petersburg, Alexey took up the role in February 2017. He will be based in the Constructor Russia factory in Kirovsk.

About Constructor Group

Constructor Group AS is a European leader in the design, provision and installation of industrial and commercial storage, archiving and logistics solutions. With continued acquisition and growth, the company is now a family of five key brands – Constructor, Bruynzeel, Dexion, PSS and Kasten.

As a result, it has become Europe's largest provider of commercial storage, and the third largest in the industrial sector. Facilities are located in key markets in Russia, Romania, Netherlands and Germany with a sales network that spans Africa, the Middle East, and North & South America.

www.constructor-storage.ru

